

Open Campus Days schedule in case of typhoon

To guarantee the safety of our visitors and staff the schedule of the Open Campus Days may be cancelled or changed in case of extreme weather. The schedule will be cancelled or changed in line with the following guidelines:

- If there is a ‘Strong Wind Emergency Warning’ or a ‘Strong Wind Warning’ issued by Osaka Prefecture in place at 7:00 AM, the morning program will be cancelled until noon (12:00 AM).

If the warnings are cancelled before 10:00 AM, the afternoon program will take place as originally scheduled from noon (12:00 AM). At the School of Nursing the program will start from 11:30 AM)

※the content of the program may be changed

- If there is a ‘Strong Wind Emergency Warning’ or a ‘Strong Wind Warning’ issued by Osaka Prefecture in place at 10:00 AM, the afternoon program will be cancelled.

- If a ‘Strong Wind Emergency Warning’ or a ‘Strong Wind Warning’ is issued by Osaka Prefecture during the Open Campus Days, the program will be cancelled with immediate effect.

- Depending on the actual local situation, the program may be cancelled even if Osaka Prefecture did not issue a warning.

Any cancellations will be announced on our homepage (in Japanese only).